“ I went to Centralia High School with Jim and was so sorry to read about his death. I've let other class members know. My friend Pam Oakley asked our Sunday School class at First Methodist to pray for your family, and we certainly will continue to do that. Our hearts go out to all of your family. If not for the funeral of family member's stepfather at the same time today, we would come to the memorial service for Jim. I know you will have a lot of support, though. Please know we are thinking of you, especially today.

“ We are so sorry for your family enduring the tragic loss of Jim and the years with him that were stolen from you. We knew Jim working at Red Man Pipe. He was well respected, soft spoken and a professional man admired by all.
