

Patsy Tronnier

January 1, 1957 - May 29, 2019

Patsy Ann Tronnier, 62, of Bartlesville, passed away on Wednesday, May 29, 2019 surrounded by her loving family.

She was born on January 1, 1957 in Cushing, Oklahoma, the daughter of Edgar Ellis and Georgia Carolina (Coale) Vice. She grew up in Drumright, Oklahoma, and graduated from High School there in the class of 1975. Following high school, she attended nursing school in Tulsa, Oklahoma. On October 25, 1980, she married Kenneth Tronnier, and they made their home in Bartlesville, Oklahoma. Later, they moved to Enid, Oklahoma, and Midland, Texas, due to Kenneth's work, before returning home to Bartlesville.

Patsy had worked as an apartment manager for Case and Associates for a number of years. She was currently employed by Security Finance, as an assistant manager.

She enjoyed spending time with her family, especially her grandchildren. She loved the beach and enjoyed being near the ocean.

She is survived by her daughter, Chauntay Johnson, son in law, Chris, grandchildren, Georgia and Lincoln, daughter, Margot Norton, son in law, Blake, granddaughter, Emma, sister, Susie Hicks, brother in law, Darrell, former spouse, Kenneth Tronnier, numerous nieces, nephews, extended family members, and friends.

She was preceded in death by her parents, two brothers, George and Edgar Vice (Jr), and nephew, Brian Hicks.

“ Chauntay and Margot, I am so very sorry for your loss. Losing a parent is not easy, and I understand the pain you are feeling right now. I promise you, life will go on. Your beautiful mother will always be with you and time has a lovely way of taking the edges off the pain ... eventually ... and leaving you with the sweet memories of your precious loved one. Hugs to all of you. ~ Barbara Vice
